12 Fall Container-Garden Recipes

Add beauty to your fall garden or landscape with these container-garden creations.

Add Formal Flair

Make a statement to your entrance with a well-placed container or two. For classic gardens, it's tough to beat an urn filled with flowers such as the one shown here.

- A. Purple Fountaingrass (Pennisetum 'Burgundy Giant') -- 1
- B. Coleus (Solenostemon 'Sedona') -- 1
- C. Zinnia (Zinnia elegans 'Zesty Scarlet') -- 1
- D. Annual black-eyed Susan (Rudbeckia 'Cordoba') -- 1
- E. Calibrachoa 'Superbells Tequila Sunrise' -- 2

Plant Perennials

Perennials can be the highlight of the fall container garden, especially if you choose types with flashy foliage. Treat them as inexpensive annuals or get them in the ground as soon as you can before it freezes.

- A. Euphorbia amygdaloides 'Efanthia' -- 1
- B. Fountaingrass (Pennisetum 'Hameln') -- 1
- C. Diascia 'Flying Colors Trailing Red' -- 1
- D. Coral bells (Heuchera 'Dolce Creme Brulee') -- 2

Grow Glorious Grasses

Grasses are a no-brainer for fall gardens. Keep them in mind for your container plantings, too. Most grasses look great in pots. Here, purple fountain grass and blue fescue create a lovely contrast for pink mums and yellow strawflower.

- A. Blue fescue (Festuca glauca) -- 1
- B. Pink mum (Chrysanthemum 'Cecilia') -- 2
- C. Strawflower (Bracteantha 'Sundaze Golden Yellow') -- 1
- D. Purple Fountain grass (Pennisetum 'Burgundy Giant') -- 1
